SHOCKING ACCIDENT

ON S. P. AT LAKESIDE

Laborer Loses Both Legs Under a Work Train in Trying to Escape from Blast.

OGDEN, May 13.—Contra Klovich, a laborer in the employ of the Southern Pacific company at the Lakeside quarry, was run over by a work train shortly before noon on Thursday and had both legs cut off. The unfortunate man was trying to escape from an exploding blast and did not notice the approaching train until he was struck. A special train with company doctors and nurses was sent to the cut-off to attend to the injured man, who was later brought to the Ogden General hospital.

WANTS TO MOVE PLANT.

OGDEN, May 13.—F. A. Neuberger, president of the Ceres Manufacturing company of Logan, is conferring with Ogden business men in regard to moving his factory to Ogden. On Thursday evening he met with the Ogden Chamber of Commerce and stated to those present that if local capital would be invested in his business, he would seriously consider a change of location as Ogden is most favorably located on railroad lines and has many advantages not enjoyed by the Cache county metropolis. The company is capitalized for $200,000, there being $188,000

EASTERN COMPANY IN CONTROL.

OGDEN, May 13.—The Pintsch Compressing company of New York has purchased controlling interest in the old Pintsch gas plant formerly owned by the Rio Grande people, and will now enlarge the plant and make several important changes. The old system has been in use for more than 20 years and has supplied gas for all passenger coaches running out of Ogden, the Harman as well as the Gould cars. This order of supplying gas will continue as in the past, but the operation of the plant will be under the direction of the New York company. The local manager, George Lechman, will remain in charge of the plant and the stock of lamps and other supplies will be materially increased.

GUARDIAN APPOINTED.

OGDEN, May 13.—A petition for letters of guardianship of Roscoe E. Bowman and Ida Bowman, aged 4 and 3 years respectively, has been filed in the district court by Mrs. Rose C. Bowman. The father of the children, James E. Bowman, was killed by a locomotive boiler explosion near Vananda, Mont., on Dec. 16, 1909. The estate is estimated at $1,500 and consists of a claim against the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad company. By an order of District Judge J. A. Howell, Mrs. Bowman has been appointed guardian under $3,500 bonds, which have been furnished.

HOBBO BURGULARS CAPTURED.

OGDEN, May 13.—John Hackett and John Caslake, two hobos were arrested at Basile, on the Southern Pacific cut-off, Thursday afternoon on the charge of burglary by Deputy Sheriff Murray C. Burk. Shortly before noon a telephone message was received at the sheriff's office from Mrs. T. L. White of Reese, in the West Weber district, stating that two tramps had entered her place and stolen a lot of goods and food. The officers secured an automobile and upon arriving at the White residence were informed that the men had gone west on the railroad track. From the section foreman of that division, the officers obtained the use of a small track motor and were successful in overtaking the men as they were crossing the cut-off. They had in their possession several sacks filled with groceries and eatables.

WILL ROYALLY ENTERTAIN SALT LAKE BUSINESS MEN

(Special Correspondence.)
PROVO, May 13.—The Provo Commercial club has arranged a program for the All-Utah excursion of the Salt Lake Commercial club, Monday evening which it is believed will make the visit of the Salt Lake a pleasant one. At 8 o'clock a meeting will be held in the tabernacle at which President William M. Roylance, of the Provo Commercial club will preside. An address of welcome will be made by Mayor W. H. Ray. Prominent speakers, of the Salt Lake Commercial club will also address the meeting. The tabernacle choir will render vocal selections and the Graham quartet and Montgomery's band, accompanying the excursionists, will fill out a fine musical program.

IN JUSTICE NOON'S COURT.

PROVO, May 13.—D. H. Cannon, a clerk in Deal Bros. & Mendonville's store, Superior building, was sentenced in Justice Noon's court Tuesday of selling a pound of butter insufficiently labeled to Heber A. Smith, deputy dairy and food inspector, was sentenced yesterday to pay a fine of $25. The defendant appealed to the Fourth district court. The case of butter, from which the 1-pound package was sold to Mr. Smith, had the required information written on each package by the creamery people who had run out of printed wrappers. The law requires this information to be on the wrapper, but no point was made on this by the prosecution. The name and address of the maker had not been written on the particular package sold to Mr. Smith. This is claimed by the defense to be an unintentional mistake by the clerk at the creamery, which was easily overlooked, or if noticed no attention was given to it, owing to a sudden change in the law. The defense also claims that the other packages in the case had the complete information required by the pure food law, written on them.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

PROVO, May 13.—Mrs. Georgia Jenkins, of Wales, Sanpete county, mother of Miss Jenkins who met accidental death here Tuesday night, came up from Wales, Sanpete county, Wednesday afternoon. The remains were taken to Wales for burial yesterday. The class-mates of Miss Jenkins accompanied the body to the train, carrying flowers which will be placed on the casket at the funeral.

CONVICTED OF SELLING WHISKY.

PROVO, May 13.—A "bottle-maker" of American Fork was found guilty of illegally selling a bottle of whisky by a jury in Justice of the Peace Cunningham's court, yesterday. A sentence of 30 days' imprisonment and $200 fine was imposed. An appeal has been taken.

PROVO NEWS NOTES.

Judge Booth held court in Heber yesterday.

Prof. Robert Sauer and the B. Y. L. orchestra will give the last of its fine concerts of the season in College hall this evening.

County Atty. Evans and Deputy Sheriff Hales were at Mill Fork yesterday to investigate circumstances connected with the killing of W. O. Wilcox by C. H. Clive, last Saturday. Sheriff Judd was in Salt Lake on the same business.

The Commercial club committee on education by its chairman, W. S. Rawlings, brought the matter of a public play ground and gymnasium before the club last night, and asked for the support of the club in the movement, which was promised. Mr. Rawlings stated that the general play ground and gymnasium committee had asked the city council to construct a swimming pool for the boys in the north park for a starter and that this would probably be done.

Prof. Maud May Babcock will give a dramatic reading of "A doll's house," Saturday night in College hall.

RECENT DEATHS

DEDRICKSON, MRS. MARY.—At Spanish Fork, Utah county, Utah, Mrs. Mary Dedrickson died May 6, 1910, of old age and general debility. She had been bed-fast for nearly a year.

CLARK, WILLIAM.—At his home in Lehi, Utah county, Utah, Saturday May 11, Patrick William Clark died of general debility, aged 85 years. He was the only son of John W. and Mary Hill Clark, born July 26, 1825, at Worcestershire, England. At 23 he came to the United States, and at 25 he married Mary Clark, who died at Latter-day Saints, also married Emily Niles Bryant that year. Came to America in 1849 to Council Bluffs, Iowa. In September, 1850 his wife died. In Feb. 1852 he married Mrs. Jane Stephenson Ross, who had three children. In 1852 they came to Utah, arriving in Salt Lake in September, 1852, where he has resided since. He endured all the hardships of pioneer life, was active in the militia and held many position of a religious and civil capacity. For 13 years he was second counselor to Bishop T. R. Cutler and for the past six years has been Alpine stake patriarch. He has been an active business man all his life. He was a kind and considerate father, a loving husband and good neighbor. An upright citizen and a true Latter-day Saint. His descendants number 13 children, 69 grandchildren, 49 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. Funeral services were held from the new tabernacle at Lehi, May 10. The speakers were Bishop Andrew Field, Bishop T. R. Cutler, President A. J. Evans, President S. L. Chipman, President Jas. Clark, Elders Mark Austin, A. R. Anderson, and Joseph W. McMurtin, who dwell on the noble life and labors of the deceased as a pioneer Church worker and business man, and spoke words of comfort to the bereaved relatives. The house was filled with sorrowing friends and relatives and the floral tributes were many and beautiful.

CHRISTENSEN, ELIZA ROZALIA.—At her home in Ephraim, Sanpete county, Utah, Mrs. Eliza Rozalia Christensen, one of Ephraim's honored pioneers, died after a brief illness of two weeks. She was born in the city of Fredericksburg, Norway, Nov. 13, 1834, and joined the Mormon Church in September 1854, being the first member of the branch that was organized later in that city. She emigrated to America in 1857, and while on board the sailing vessel Westmoreland was married to Mr. Christensen. They landed in Philadelphia and from there they continued their journey to the city of Iowa, the western terminus of the railroad in America. From there they took a long and tiresome journey across the desert plains and mountains, a distance of 1,300 miles, both assisting in pulling the handcart which contained their earthly possessions during the entire journey. While crossing the plains the handcart company in which they were traveling journeyed on the north side of the Platte river, while the soldiers of Johnston's army traveled in plain view on the opposite side of the stream for several hundred miles, but the emigrants had no trouble with either the soldiers or Indians. In September they arrived in Salt Lake City, where they remained for some time, when they moved to Ephraim where they have since made their home. Funeral services were held in the tabernacle at Ephraim on May 10, and was largely attended. The speakers were President Arthur H. Lund of Salt Lake City, Elder Joseph Hansen of Fairview, Bishop Jensen of Mant, J. Y. Jensen and L. M. Olsen of Ephraim. They all spoke very feelingly of her noble character, and example. Her children are all married and are Fred Christensen, C. J. Christensen, Mrs. Otto G. Olson, Mrs. A. C. Nielsen all of Ephraim, Mrs. N. L. Christensen of Redmond and Ephraim Christensen of Salt Lake City. There are also 28 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
